

called to serve

2021 Annual Report

The Memorial Foundation

Dear Friends,

In many ways, 2021 was an extension of the ongoing challenges our community faced in 2020. The pandemic and its new variants refused to go away. Fatigue and weariness set in as our local nonprofits continued to confront challenges often out of their control. Financial pressures, increased service demands, staffing instability, and virtual vs. in-person dilemmas were as persistent as the virus itself.

As we walked alongside our nonprofit partners throughout the year, we discussed these many challenges. We also marveled at their ability to somehow keep going despite never-ending pressure. We asked what fueled their ability to persevere in such difficult circumstances. Not surprisingly, the answer we often heard was, “It’s a calling to serve”. This calling, we learned, is far greater than the most relentless obstacles. It brings them joy and fulfillment, and a sense of purpose. They speak of their organizations’ missions and how it brings hope and opportunity to those they care about. They speak of how their work allows them to witness, first-hand, lives transformed – individuals and families better equipped and empowered to pursue their dreams.

As you will learn in this year’s annual report, the Memorial Foundation was privileged to invest in 194 of these local nonprofit organizations that continued to pursue their calling to serve against all odds.

A photograph of three children in wheelchairs outdoors. A boy in a bright green shirt is leaning over the back of two other children. The child on the left is wearing a green shirt and has large prosthetic legs. The child on the right is wearing a light blue shirt. They are on a paved path with a grassy field and trees in the background. A table with water bottles is visible on the left.

Improving the quality of life through support to nonprofit organizations

Grant guidelines

The Memorial Foundation awards grants to nonprofit organizations that provide services to people who live in the communities served by Nashville Memorial Hospital. Requests for support outside this area are not considered.

All organizations requesting grants are subject to a review process that includes an initial interview with staff, submission of an application, a possible site visit, and approval by The Memorial Foundation's Board of Trustees.
